

Translator, Freelance Environmental Journalist, Environmental Educator

Mira has worked as a freelance translator for environmental groups in NB for the last 10 years. During the rest of her time, she is a freelance environmental journalist and works as a seasonal park interpreter.

Work History

- Park interpreter, 2017- present
- Freelance translator, 2010- present: translation of various documents such as press releases, reports, PowerPoint presentations, agendas and more, mostly from English to French
- Freelance environmental journalist, winter 2023: working on building an environmental journalism platform, to be launched in February 2023

Education

- Master of Environmental Studies, Diploma in Environment and Sustainability Education, York University (2022)
- current student, Translation Certificate program, Université de St-Boniface
- Bachelor of Journalism, University of King's College (2017)
- Bachelor of Arts with Honours in Environmental and Sustainability Studies and a second major in Biology (2014)

Languages: fluent in English, French and German, beginner Spanish

Mira Dietz Chiasson
miradietzchiasson@gmail.com