
Roland Chiasson
28 High Marsh Road
E4L 1K2
1-506-536-7348
roland.chiasson@astergroup.ca

Please note a more detailed CV available upon request.

Work Experience

President of Aster Group Environmental Services Co-operative (<http://astergroup.ca>)

Wildlife Biologist & Outdoor Learning Specialist 2014 to 2025

Work Description:

- Designed and carried out numerous ornithological surveys (35 years of experience) mostly for windmill projects and tourism projects.
- Conducted bird / nest detection surveys for construction projects.
- Lead numerous biological inventories of birds, plants, insects and amphibians.
- Conducted bird surveys and produced reports on mitigation measures to reduce disturbance impacts on bird population from developments.
- Produced a master nature interpretation plan for Mount Carleton Provincial Park,
- Educational programming for the Fundy Trail Parkway & the Fundy Biosphere.
- Educational workshops for watershed technicians in the southeast
- Founding member of 'Great Minds Think Outside.
- Wrote the 'Great Minds Think Outside Education Resources Guide.

Manager of Education and Outreach, Cape Jourimain Nature Centre, 2009 to 2014.

Corvus Consultants - Wildlife Biologist & Environmental Educator, 2004-2010.

School Teacher & Supply Teacher, 2004-2006.

Conservation Biologist and Educator, Nature NB, Acadian Peninsula 1988 - 2003.

- Piping Plover monitoring and coastal conservation educational school programming.

Nature Interpreter Guide, Parks Canada, Atlantic Canada 1981 - 1987.

Education

- Bachelor of Education, Major in Biology & Environmental Studies Mount Allison University, Sackville, NB, 1991.
 - Masters in Environmental Studies, Biological Conservation & Nature Education, York University, Downsview, Ontario, 1988.
 - Bachelor of Science, Specialization in Wildlife Biology, Acadia University, Wolfville, NS, 1984.
-